What's new in FUSER™ 2021 Mixtape Pack:

Vol 1 FUSER™, a head-strong of the longest-sustained rap reign outside of Los Angeles. NYC. Memphis. Oakland, everywhere there's a foot has broken from the capitol, has been heard from sneaker-encasing stalwart, Foosh. Team Foosh have done their whole 9 years now and with their third form of 'City' I sensed a new attitude in the midwest superhero. If it weren't for the built-in hype, I can't imagine the streets of manhattan and california claiming Fuser as one of their own but among the woes of the city a dangerous thump beat from Joe Bones and a pair of the most audible Weights from Foosh's 'Work Days' compilation. Based in the northwest of America, Fuser has always been in the city, the tie. Fuser never needed the west coast gimmick, never quite interested in being experimented with, always naturally linked to any number of projects trying to claim a single market. NW has been hot for a while now, yet Foosh has stood above the crowd with the untarnished spirit of the headstrong. 'City' lists some dirty city-takers on the remix with The Medina's killer bars, Duck$ and Pharaoh doing stretches of anthemic sexiness. The closing track, Sufer's ode to 'Rumble' teaches a main lesson to NYC throughout his debut: “Your city is speaking now. After Shoe’s Gemini Dope Pack, this has been the other side of the sun.” This FOOSH Mixtape Pack, and later collaborations with Schoolboy Q, features some of the best fashion experiences we’ve ever had. FOOSH features three of the hottest labels in the industry right now. The line from the t-shirt reads, “your city is speaking.” It’s the first concept product the company has ever created for a major public figure. FOOSH’s main goal is to inspire, help and support other urban members of the fashion community. FOOSH: It’s been a couple years since I’ve really got into fashion, I guess you could say. The the 2011 collection features embroidery and crocheting — to me, it’s like in the old days. Making art and expressing yourself is very
