When I bought it the gun had been in the Marlin store a few days and it looked good, but I wasn't so sure about the caliber. I had seen a few 6-shooters with that same Federal/Marlin script but they were all.30-06's. I really hadn't shot much.22's and had no experience with them. I started with a few.22s at my local range, one of which was a Marlin Model 27. It was an accurate gun but I didn't love shooting it. After about five or six shots into the pine woods I got to thinking about what kind of hunting
